POLICE AND NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITY WATCH ASSOCIATION TEAM UP

GREENSBORO, NC (May 18, 2004) – The North Carolina Community Watch Association (NCCWA), in partnership with the Greensboro Police Department (GPD), is holding its quarterly training session on Saturday, June 5, 2004 at the Justice Building, 1201 Coliseum Boulevard. Training topics will include the GPD's recent reorganization, 911 communications, Crime Stoppers, identity theft, and solid waste management. Individuals interested in gaining a wide-ranging practical knowledge of police services should attend this informative training opportunity.

Registration begins at 8:00 a.m. followed by the training session at 9:00 a.m. Program activities will conclude around 4:00 p.m. The training session is free to the public and lunch is provided. For registration information, contact Shawn Braswell at 433-7318.

The NCCWA is an organization devoted to creating active, viable and dynamic cooperation and exchange of information among and between community watches and the law enforcement community. NCCWA works to develop, disseminate, and promote technical and operational community watch practices in communities across the state.

The City of Greensboro works in partnership with the community to build an increased quality of life for all residents by fostering an environment where inclusion, diversity, and trust are valued. As the seventh largest employer in Greensboro, the City has a dedicated professional staff of more than 2500 employees who maintain four core values of honesty, integrity, stewardship, and respect. The City of Greensboro is governed by a council-manager form of government where a mayor and eight council members act as the legislative body.
